

THE C.S. LEWIS RETREAT

For Readers, Writers, & Mere Christians

Join us at Camp Allen, amid the piney woods, as we “feed on the truth” of the Psalms, with C.S. Lewis as a guide at a weekend retreat facilitated by the C.S. Lewis Foundation.

Enjoy a respite with friends, old and new, with good food and laughter, learning, and community. Be inspired by Gregory Cootsona, Andrew Lazo, Matthew Clark, and others as they give us insight into the truth, goodness, and beauty in the Psalms, so that we might apply these lessons to our own spiritual journeys. Don't miss this unique experience of faith, reason, and imagination in the company of friends!
